STATEMENT OF PURPOSE & PRINCIPLES

National BIWAYS is produced by the Australian Bisexual Network to inform its audience about social, political and personal issues relevant to bisexuality and bisexual people, to provide a forum for exchanging opinions and sharing experiences, to link up with and support geographically or socially isolated bisexual people, to foster the Bisexual Movement in Australia and to help build a diverse multicultural community of bisexual and bi-friendly people and groups in Australia and elsewhere.

ABN realises that bisexuality is inextricably linked to other identities (gender, race, class, etc). Our intention is that National BIWAYS will represent a broad spectrum of bisexual voices and images. We are committed to taking an active role in building a multicultural bisexual community free of racism, sexism, classism, homophobia and other forms of oppression.

Through self-examination and through the contents of this news magazine, we will endeavour to challenge our own racism, classism, sexism (and our own biphobia) as well as that of others. We will work to create a supportive bisexual community and to promote equality and understanding for bisexual people in both the heterosexual and the lesbian/gay communities. We regard ourselves as part of a larger sexual minority (queer) community, a gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender communities, and consider the fight for lesbian and gay rights to be our own. We advocate the recognition, inclusion and involvement of bisexual people in existing gay and lesbian and transgender communities, in lesbian and gay politics, in community development and consultations, in sexual health and HIV/AIDS issues, policy, research and education. ABN does not support the promotion of pedophilia or organisations that promote it.

We are sex-positive, recognising that we live under increasing sexual oppression. We support sex education for its own sake. We advocate the distribution of information and resources to halt the spread of HIV/AIDS, STDs and unwanted pregnancies. We supports the rights of people with HIV/AIDS to be free of discrimination, to have access to information, housing and quality medical care and treatments.

We seek to expand, not constrain, the definitions of bisexual and we respect the right of the individual to define her/his own self-definition, identity and type of relationship(s), free from any social, political, religious or economic coercion. We support healthy relationships between consenting adults. We acknowledge the right of partners, particularly female partners of bisexual men, to quality non-judgemental counselling and health services if needed, to greater understanding by all communities and to honesty in their relationship.

National BIWAYS is published at least once every two months. It is available by membership subscription, exchange, from various affiliated bisexual groups in Australia or through our international outreach work. The views expressed in this magazine are those of the authors unless otherwise stated. The inclusion of a person's name or photograph or business advertisement should not be taken as an indication of their sexual identity or sexual orientation.

The Australian Bisexual Network, Bisexual Youth Alliance, the Bisexual Community Information Service and National BIWAYS are unfunded and rely on your support to keep going. We welcome submissions of material for publication; assistance with production; involvement in Network and group activities, individual and community financial or "in kind" support.

Editorial Comment

A big apology to all members and readers for missing out the Jan/Feb issue and for getting this first issue for 1997 out so late in to the year. What with the preparations for our National Conference which was a huge success and spending three weeks away in Sydney for it, followed by the flu and many commitments upon my return, it was impossible to get an issue out before now.

1997 International Women's Day March in Brisbane where Diana, Kathleen and Jenny march with the Bi Banner giving visibility to the Bi Movement.

I trust you will find this issue of interest and your patience has been well rewarded. We always welcome your contributions of stories, poetry, artwork, photos etc. People like the personal touch rather than material extracted from other news and information sources.

Pride is almost upon us. For those of you who have had little to do with gay culture, Pride celebrates the 1969 Stonewall Riots in New York which are seen as the birth of the modern Gay and Lesbian Rights Movement and thus the Bi Movement also. It is universally celebrated with festivals and marches occurring from early June through to August though most marches focus around the week-end of June 28th this year.

ABN will again be participating in events in Brisbane and you are welcome to come and join us. Check out the Bi events calendar to see what's coming up. We have a couple of forums, the march and fair day, a dinner and the opening of Bar Bi, Brisbane's first Bisexual bar. So join us for some fun in June and July.

Please also remember the International Candlelight Vigil which will be occurring in cities around Australia and the world in May. In Sydney it was held on May 4th so I hope some of our Sydney members attended. Here in Brisbane it will be on May 17th and ABN will have a group participating so do come and join us and remember those people who have died of AIDS.

Bar Bi Is coming to Brisbane.

Brisbane will see the opening in June of it's very own bisexual bar. ABN has made arrangements with the Shamrock Hotel to initially open a bar for bisexual people, our partners and friends once a month with the possibility of it becoming more frequent if you the Bi community support it.

Bar Bi will be officially launched at 8pm on June 19th and will be open from 6pm to late. It features a pool table, jute box, small dance area, lounge area, garden area, & a well stocked bar with a friendly topless barmaid to serve you your favourite drink. Do come and support the opening night and get your free glass of bubbly. Bar Bi is at the Shamrock Hotel in Brunswick Street, Fortitude Valley opposite Signals Adult Bookshop and The Den for Men. It opens Thursday 19th June & bring your friends.

The 2nd Australian Conference on Bisexuality

by Wayne Roberts and Graham McKay

The Australian Bisexual Network with the support of the Sydney Bisexual Network and the Central Sydney Area Health Service held an extremely successful national bisexual conference in Sydney from February 21 to 23, 1997. It was titled, the 2nd Australian Conference on Bisexuality with the theme, Lifestyles, Sex and Politics. The conference was open to anybody with an interest in all aspects of bisexuality and bisexual people, their lifestyles and culture to present papers, workshops or attend as delegates. The conference was primarily promoted to the bisexual and queer communities but some advertising was placed in the mainstream Media. Where media releases were sent to the mainstream Media there was virtually NO response or coverage. Some coverage appeared in the gay and lesbian press and Brother Sister and Adelaide Gay Times provided sponsorship in the form of free advertising. ABN's Wayne Roberts was interviewed by telephone for Vancouver's Queer Radio program about the conference and associated bi events.

The conference was held during the Sydney Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras Festival to capitalise on the large number of people that were in Sydney during the Festival and the many cultural events forming part of the Festival. The conference was also to be a statement of bisexual solidarity with the lesbian and gay communities.

The Sydney Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras endorsed the Conference as an official Festival event. We thank the SGLMG for their support.

The Party

Of course with that many liberated people in one place we couldn't avoid but to have a few social activities including the post-conference Diversity Party - Bi Bi Sunday at the Lava Bar, Burdekin Hotel, which was a huge success - especially for the Sydney Bisexual Network who held an auction for some of the costumes that were later used on the Mardi Gras float. Some spirited bidding saw Graham of Sydney get the coveted fish helmet. The auction and raffle raised over $600 towards the cost of the Mardi Gras Float.

The National Meeting

At the National Meeting of ABN members and other interested bisexuals, it was decided to hold a third national conference in early 1998 and set up a national planning committee of interested people. The meeting endorsed that ABN seek national incorporation and that an appropriate constitution be developed for incorporation. Alan from Adelaide volunteered to draft a new constitution and Roger of Canberra will investigate incorporation. ABN will also seek to send representatives to the 1998 International Bisexual Conference in Boston USA. The youth arm of ABN is to be developed as the Bisexual Youth Alliance and ABN will endeavour to obtain funds to send youth reps to appropriate youth and student conferences and forums.

The Mardi Gras Parade

A week after the Conference, bisexuals joined the Sydney Bisexual Network Float and ABN marching contingent in Sydney Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras Parade for a wonderful show of solidarity and pride under the SBN Float theme of "Discrimination puts us all in the same boat". A video is available from SBN on our participation in the Parade and features other floats in the Parade too.

BISEXUALITY IN THE GOTHIC COMMUNITY

by Ben Wilson (ABN Brisbane).

It's dark. A quiet night and you have decided to go out on the town for a night out. You're with a friend and you're just about to head off when you turn a corner and see them. A group of Darkly clad people all looking morose and heading your way. You stop your conversation and quietly let them pass hoping that they don't turn around and jump you for your wallet. In some way, shape or form, you've seen us, walking the streets, either in groups or singly. The rare and elusive Homo Sapiens Gothicus, or Goth for short. Personally I've heard the lot coming from the norms. Driving past screaming out their drunken words from out car windows, Freaks, Weirdo's, Queers?. Yet surprisingly enough, that last remark holds a lot of meaning inside the Gothic community. Sexuality in the Gothic society is not as obvious as the meat markets of most clubs and pubs, as most of us use our clubs for socialising and having some fun to release our tensions. I am here today as a representative from my culture to your own. I bring the gift of knowledge and understanding, and I come giving you information on how Bisexuals, Gays, Lesbians and even Hetero people can operate in a social arena.

Goth means many things to many people. From it's original ideal of the Black punks from it's birthplace in England, to the Swampy Goth with the torn black skirts, and teased out hair, to the High Goth of silks and cravats, to the industrial Goth with the cut fish net sleeves and T-shirts. Whatever your interpretation, this community of friends are just that... Friends. Anyone can come up to another person in the club and instantly be friends, even if this was their first encounter. We are a mixture of Gays, Lesbians, Heterosexuals and Bisexuals all enjoying similar taste in music, clothing, lifestyle, and thinking. Sexuality is something that only comes into play if someone tells you their sexual preferences. To some of the younger Gothlings it's fashionable to be Bi due to the thinking of Vampires and being creatures of the night. Others who generally are older in the scene, take their sexuality seriously and are either known to be Hetero, Bi or Gay just because they are, and not to look cool. There is no homophobia because the understanding of playing around and stepping on friends toes is obeyed and tolerated if an actual mistake does occur. This bonding and understanding comes from years of abuse for being whom we are. Our pastimes do not fall into the category of "normal behaviour" and we are not seen as a productive influence in society. Some find us scary, others scorn us as being some fringe alternative group. Yet I have spoken to people who know the Gothic community without being Goth who sympathise and know us to be helpful and courteous to people. We are our own police, councillors, support group and teachers, looking after whom ever falls into our circle and accepts us and understands our needs. Their sexual needs either straight, gay or both are satisfied in this circle of friends and people can see in one room a guy talking to a girlfriend, get pounced on and kissed or bitten passionately by a boyfriend, and then see him kiss his girlfriend with the same passion. O.K., you say these are just kids mucking around, and yes some of them do just that, but most of them are serious about their personnel preferences. One of my friends who will remain anonymous is one of our DJ's and he's very comfortable spending time with Bis and gays. We know fully that he has a point where he does get uncomfortable when put into a compromising position. We understand this and never pressure him. As with any friend you don't try and push your sexuality onto them and the same thing inside our collective.

Goths have many and varied ways of communicating about sex and the ideas behind it. In fact I have overheard many a various debate on sexual preference on both Internet and in the nightclubs. This conversation isn't philosophical or accusational, yet an interesting debate on sexuality as a whole, and how it seems that a person MUST be classified as a sex so the government can categorise you as decent or perverted or some other weird listing. Goth can not be classified because it's meaning jumps from person to person. What one person thinks is Goth, another might dismiss. With this aversion to labels, labels like "Bisexual" or "Gay" do not get used unless it is in a jovial aspect.

If you notice, the governments of our time like sorting out people as winners and losers, black or white, Hetero or Homo. Yet when you come to bisexuality, we like to believe we are both, but we're not. We are placed into the same boat as gays. Goths are no different. We have always been classified in the Street gang/ Violent types. People still tar us with classifications that are out-dated and wrong. We are hassled and looked upon as second class citizens, as nothing better than street trash. We use this classification as a tool. We don't want to be bothered by other people's mundane actions, so we use this "fear" that has been generated to get our privacy. Yet Goth, like Bisexuality, is making its presence felt. People are using the genre to make points and statements in Movies, books, and in it's own strange way Television soap operas. Goths are like yourselves, although we hate to admit it, people. We have the same problems and hassles as everyone else. As with many others, some of us cannot resolve whom and what we are or find where we fit in, if such a place exists. This drives some of us to Depression and others so far as Suicide.

Our job, like the job you must do now, is to be accepted for who we are and what we can achieve in both the work force, and society in general. Many people don't walk into job interviews dressed like a bisexual because there is no "major" dress code of that community. When you walk into a job interview dressed in full blacks, white make-up, and tell tale signs of removed piercing, you find a lot of people close their minds to the idea of a Gothic person working for them due to their image. The public in general have an out of sight, out of mind policy. If you can not see it, it no longer exists in the public's reality. Sexuality is hard to see from the public eye. Goth is there showing the world that it is time to realise what is happening to the world's population, it's not the view of mom and dad and two well behaved kids and a dog called "Rusty". It's hardship, dark, unforgiving and brutal on the young minds of today. Having to put up with the world detesting them for their choice of fashion and music, they now have to face the added hatred of sexual preference.

Yet inside this select group of dark troubled people whose graveyard pastimes and strange facial paintings and whose music is looked down on with scorn and disdain, is the one thing that makes Goths and The Bisexual, even the Gay and Lesbian community so similar.

The world could learn a lot from this group of people.

This paper was presented in the Alternative Communities Stream at the 2nd Australian Conference on Bisexuality, Sydney, 21-23 February 1997.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS

1st Bi Group in Argentina forms for Women

from our Bi-Correspondent in Buenos Aires, Alejandra Sarda.

Things are going terrifically well here. On February, I appeared on TV (it was a talk show) speaking as a bisexual and gave out my phone number for women interested in being part of a support group. Can you believe that the phone did not stop ringing for weeks? More than a hundred women phoned. Of course, not all of them finally joined the group; many were just needing a little talk or simply knowing that there was a place where they will be accepted and listened to, in case they needed. On February 21st, about 20 women and I started the first ever support group for bisexual women in our country. The group is going on wonderfully, and next women we will start a second one, because women keep phoning!

One of the women in the group is designing a banner for us to carry on Pride Day. I suggested we use the rainbow flag but with no clear division among the colors, as a symbol of our reluctance to choose sides and divide our feelings/beings in neat categories. At least one of them - the designer- has promised to carry the banner with me. I hope there will be more than one by then!

2nd Lesbian, Gay, Transvestite, Transsexual & Bisexual National Conference.

Salta, Argentina - 28 y 29 de Marzo de 1997

from Alejandra Sarda in Buenos Aires.

When last year at the 1st Conference, Salta was chosen as host for the 2nd, we all knew it was a challenge. And we were right. A few days before our arrival, a local conservative newspaper wrote about the perverts ready to invade the city, while pro-family and Christian groups threaten with a human chain to impede our entrance to the hotel.

In that climate, about 50 activists from Buenos Aires and Rosario arrived in a very mobilized town. Local media covered the conference all the time; to our surprise, newspapers and TV were serious, respectful and informative. The promoted human chain never materialized; on the contrary, people everywhere showed us solidarity and affection. As trans - activist Lohanna Berkins said to a local media, Salta's society proved to be a long way ahead of its leaders. Police participation was reduced to following our bus wherever it went and being on duty in front of the bar where workshops were held.

Political pressures made the University back off at the last moment, leaving us without a place for workshops and plenaries. The Conference was then held at a local gay bar, Nosotros. It was not at all the most suitable place (several workshops had to be reformulated) but everyone's good disposition soon made it seem fitting.

Overcoming their fears, local lesbians, gays and transvestites attended in growing numbers, and that was one of the Conference's main achievements. By the end, they almost out numbered those coming from other provinces.

Workshops were suitable for all tastes. Young Gays and Lesbians Group (Buenos Aires) invited us to a generational exchange, where the elders told how our young days had been. Marcelo Ferreyra (CHA, Buenos Aires) promoted the Argentinean gltt movement's history. Lohanna Berkins and Paula Rodriguez (ALIT, Buenos Aires) used masks to connect everyone with their "inner transvestite". We, Escrita en el Cuerpo, shared a warm and deep collective reflection on activists' private and public lives, their conflicts and potentials. Nestor Talento (Lugar Gay, Buenos Aires) analyzed gay couples; Cesar Cigliutti (CHA, Buenos Aires) facilitated an analysis of new strategies to be implemented before the media, while Pedro Paradiso (Arco Iris, Rosario) made us face AIDS and our excuses.

For the first time, a workshop brought together lesbians, bi and trans - women; it was facilitated by Lesbianas a la Vista and its subject was the diverse constructions of sexual identity. Two workshops awoke powerful and deep emotions in us all:- 100 years of conscience (Diana Mines, Mujer y Mujer, Uruguay) - a collective dramatization starting with the dawn of homosexual movements in Germany and ending with Stonewall and today's pride statement in each one of us; and Zapatos tacobaguja (Belen Correa, ATA, Buenos Aires) an impressing monologue on daily violence forced upon transvestites, with later debate.

Two "out of schedule" actions became an unforgettable experience for us all, but mostly for locals. On Friday night, several of us went to O'Clock, the most elegant gay disco in town. The owner did not allow local transvestites to enter, while not applying the same rule to those from Buenos Aires. The answer was a very noisy demonstration outside the bar, inviting the patrons to join in, which they did. It all ended with Conference lesbians, gays and transvestites at the disco's stage, using microphones to invite everyone to attend next day's workshops. On Saturday night, Salta witnessed for the first time in its history a Pride Parade. We all marched embracing each other, preceded by the rainbow flag, first in silence but soon with chants and slogans. It was very moving to see local gays, lesbians and transvestites who just the day before spoke of their panic to be visible, and now were proudly marching.

Several important resolutions were agreed upon at this 2nd Conference:

- * To organize a national campaign towards an Anti-discriminatory Law specifically mentioning sexual identity and orientation, coordinated by a national coalition of groups and individuals (meetings will be held in Rosario in July and Buenos Aires in November).
- * To celebrate Transvestite and Transsexual Day, on the date a trans group stood up for the first time to defend their rights in Dictatorship times. Nadia Echazu (OTTRA, Buenos Aires) would like to invite other countries to organize similar celebrations. It will probably be a picnic that we all will attend cross-dressed.
- * Principles for the next Conferences:- horizontal practices are the rule for the organizing committee, that is to be open to any glttb group or individual wishing to join; equality by inclusion of glttb individuals and issues; autonomy from political parties and national institutions; straight participation to be limited to an specific workshop, upon invitation by a lgttb organization/individual, PFLAG groups are excluded from this limitation; scholarships for people living outside Buenos Aires, lesbians, different women and people with special needs (HIV/AIDS, disabilities, old age, etc.); decision to be taken by consensus and not vote.

Now, Cordoba '98 waits for us. The balance is more than favorable. This 2nd Conference found us much more mature, better inclined towards dialogue and consensus, with more pride and achievements. We close this chronicle with a beautiful statement from Marlene Guayas (OTTRA, Buenos Aires) capturing the spirit of the Conference: "Respect is not enough, diversity is to be enjoyed". And we did it.

Catching the Bi Vibe

Robert Morrison reports on BIACT-L

The following is quoted from: <http://www.glaad.org/glaad/alert/index.html>

May's Vibe magazine's special sex section includes an uncensored conversation with openly bisexual recording artist and mother Me'Shell NdegeOcello, a 1997 GLAAD Media Award winner. Written by Christian Witkin, the openly bisexual daughter of Alice Walker, "Have No Fear" unflinchingly and unapologetically discuss the singer's sexual orientation and the most intimate of her sexual desires.

Speaking of her first time, NdegeOcello tells Vibe "the first time she kissed me, her tongue just probed my entire throat and mouth, and it was the most amazing feeling." Witkin asks, "if having short hair or being openly bisexual affect record sales," and questions her about raising a son and her mother's reaction to her sexual orientation.

While many publications, including many gay and lesbian publications, often ignore bisexuality, Vibe should be commended for dealing openly, honestly and un-apologetically about the fascinating songstress and bisexuality.

13th Annual IGLYO Conference

— FASCISM AND HOMOPHOBIA —

PISA, 27 JULY - 3 AUGUST 1997

The International Lesbian and Gay Youth Organisation (IGLYO) in close co-operation with Arcigay/Arcilesbica Pisa/Firenze are proud to present the 13th IGLYO conference on 'Homophobia and fascism: giving young lesbians, gays, bisexuals and transgendered people the tools to organise for change'.

What is an IGLYO conference all about?

One of the most important activities of IGLYO is the organisation of the annual conference. At the conference you will work with other young l/g/b/t people who represent the widest diversity of cultures, countries, political affiliations and occupations. Speeches, workshops and discussions will be organised. Moreover you will have a chance to get to know the work of other l/g/b/t youth organisations. It is a unique opportunity to exchange information. Apart from the more serious parts there is a social programme, including workshops on dance, music and massage and visits to Italian gay/lesbian bars.

Contents

Homophobia never appears alone. It is often present at the same time as other fascist tendencies appear in society. For example, in the last few years in a number of countries we have seen an increase in the number of attacks on gay men; the Front National in France openly preaches anti gay policy. However, these concrete violations against sexual minorities are often not recognized or brought to the attention of the public. Partly this has to do with the unawareness within the anti-fascist movement, partly because young lesbians, bisexuals, transgendered people and gay men are often not in the position to fight homophobia themselves.

These facts and developments inspired IGLYO to the subject of this year's conference. We will look at the historical and social background of homosexuality and fascism. There will be presentations on the situation of gays and lesbians in World War 2, an overview of the rise of right wing movements in different parts of the world. But moreover, the conference will provide skills in campaigning and combating fascism and homophobia. Experts from anti-fascist organisations will be invited and special attention will be given to the work of l/g/b/t youth groups in this field.

When and where does the conference take place?

The conference will take place from July 27 (arrival) till August 3 (departure) in Pisa (Italy).

Language

English and French will be the working languages.

Who can apply?

Everybody who identifies as g/l/b/t and is under the age of 27 and has a special interest in the subject of the conference. IGLYO especially reaches out to representatives of l/g/b/t youth organisations and those who belong to or identify with a traditionally underrepresented groups.

Participation fee

There is a participation fee of approximately DM 150. This fee includes -participation in the program, -accommodation in a beautiful Italian hotel, -breakfast, lunches and dinner,

Travel and Visa

IGLYO has only limited possibilities to reimburse travel costs. However we will be able to give some travel reimbursement. If you want to be eligible for a proportional reimbursement, indicate this on your application form. IGLYO urgently encourages every participant to look into local funding and scholarship possibilities (f.e. SOROS foundation). Those who need a visa for Italy, please indicate this on your application form. IGLYO will provide an invitation letter.

Technical assistance for those with disabilities

If you need special, additional support, please indicate this on your application form. IGLYO will do its best to serve your needs.

Applications

If you are interested, please fill in the application form. Do not forget to include a letter of motivation and some information from your organisation. There are 60 places available. Selection will be made by IGLYO on the basis of the application forms and motivation letters. A maximum of 2 representatives from the same organisation will be accepted. We strive to have a gender and geographic diversity.

APPLICATIONS BY E-MAIL ARE NOT ACCEPTED!

You should send or fax your application form BEFORE JUNE 15 to:

LATE NEWS

Victorian Bisexual Man Charged

It was reported on Channel 9 News on Monday, 12th May, that a La Trobe Valley HIV positive man appeared in court on more than 300 charges relating to him knowingly and wilfully having unsafe sex with 7 men and 1 woman. The eight, all from the area, are aged between 19 and 34 and some of the men were described as intellectually disabled. The charges arose after one of the men found he was now HIV positive. Three of the eight were found to have been infected by the man, a bisexual and prominent businessman. He was married and has a young child, the report stated. He is accused of inviting his "victims" back to one of three residences, where he plied them with alcohol, amyl nitrate and put on porn videos and then he engaged in unsafe sex with them knowing he was infected with HIV. It was said he used position in the community to coerce them into engaging in sexual activity with him. He has denied the charges.

This irresponsible and wilful behaviour by this man the media have described as bisexual, will result in a backlash against all bisexuals and bi men in particular. We will be portrayed as evil, AIDS spreading predators. This comes on the heels of the suicide of former Supreme Court Judge, David Yeldham, late in 1996, after he was named in the NSW Parliament in connection with police protection and cover up of well known paedophiles. What Yeldham was hiding was his double life, his bisexuality. No proof has been established by the Wood Royal Commission that he was having sex with young boys at Sydney railway station toilets (beats). Yeldham's suicide was headline news and so was his secret life and his bisexuality.

Be prepared for yet another round of bisexual bashing.

The Hunny Bunnies (if you haven't heard of us) are upgrading our internet services to provide the Australian Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender community a central new service reflecting what is being said in the straight press around oz. I really need some help in compiling the site, people to help go through newspapers in their state and help me to find relevant newspaper articles. We are in WA.

You can submit articles as fax, post or mail as seen at the site. I also need to know what newspapers are printed where, both straight and gay.

ABN NEWS

1998 Australian Bisexual Conference

It was decided at the ABN National Meeting on February 23rd that a 1998 Bi Conference be held in the early half of 1998 at a time and location that allowed maximum participation from people (during university holidays and during such festivals as Melbourne's Midsummer or Sydney's Mardi Gras).

A Conference Planning Group has been established to look at location, time, venue, speakers, events, publicity and fund raising. If you are interested in having input into the planning of the 1998 Bi Conference then please contact ABN and we will include you on the planning group. At the moment we are discussing location and time for the next conference. So far Sydney in early to mid February is favoured though Melbourne is still an option for late January or early February.

The following people are on the planning group, please feel free to contact them with any ideas you may have.

Sabina (Adelaide)
Jewel (Brisbane) <jewel@ca.com.au>
Anna (Perth) <mouse@tartarus.uwa.edu.au>
Denise (Hobart) <dwebber@netspace.net.au>
Mik (Sydney) <mikz@poboxes.com>
Wayne (Brisbane) <ausbinet@rainbow.net.au>

Maree (Newcastle) <c9222392@alinga.newcastle.edu.au>
Kirsten (Melbourne) <kemcl1@student.monash.edu.au>
Clare (Canberra) <guenther@coombs.anu.edu.au>
Ben (Brisbane) <bard@wonderland.pasdex.com.au>
Munro (Sydney) <munro@ci.com.au>

ABN is looking at having a mailing list established for discussion and an IRC channel (#A.B.N.) on Undernet for meetings. While having e-mail and access to IRC are advantages, they are not a requirement to being involved. If you want to be involved contact ABN or one of the people above.

New Constitution for ABN

The National Meeting in February endorsed a resolution for ABN to Incorporate in the Australian Capital Territory and thus be covered nationally. Alan from Adelaide was given the task of preparing a new and suitable constitution for incorporation that also allowed for regional bisexual networks and groups to be covered through affiliation with ABN. Roger volunteered to be ABN's agent/officer in Canberra for lodging the application for incorporation.

A draft constitution has now been prepared by Alan. Under the proposed constitution, ABN will consist of an Executive (president and 8 executive officers elected by the individual members) and a National Council (2 representatives from each regional bisexual group appointed or elected by each group). Each member of a regional bisexual group will also be an individual member of ABN as long as they remain a member of that group.

Regional groups like BAM Inc. will be Corporate Members of ABN and will operate under their constitution and a Charter from ABN. Groups such as SBN will be given a Charter from ABN to operate as a Bisexual Council of ABN under the ABN constitution. The Charter will take into account the specific needs of the group to allow some degree of autonomy. Bi-friendly groups and services such as the Gender Centre Inc. and the Townsville Sexual Health Clinic will become Associate Members with no voting rights or representation on the Council.

Advantages of Incorporation: ABN will be able to apply for funding in its own right, members including those of regional groups, will be protected from liability in most cases, regional bi groups now un-incorporated will be able to apply for funding as a Bisexual Council (branch) of an Incorporated ABN, greater recognition of ABN and it's service to the Bi community. Membership fees may actually drop because of increased membership as a result of members of regional groups becoming ABN members. There will be a greater sharing of roles and workload and streamlining of services under the proposed constitution.

If you would like a copy of the Draft Constitution, please send an A4 sized stamped envelope to ABN. All regional Bi groups/networks will be receiving a copy in the near future. There will be a time limit placed to have replies and comments on the draft back to ABN after which Incorporation will proceed with the final draft version of the Constitution. Many thanks to Alan in Adelaide for all the work he has done on the draft.

Bi Youth Focus for ABN

Following the Bi Youth Forum at the national conference in February, there has been renewed interest in the youth area of ABN. The previous youth arm of ABN has been renamed, Australian Bisexual Youth Alliance (ABYA). Since then moves in Sydney by Glenn and Jon-Paul have resulted in the formation of a Bi youth group there and one has been restarted in Brisbane by Shaun, Jewel, Ben and others. The Brisbane group has organised four events to date and they seem to be going quite well with a core group of around eight people and growing. The Sydney Bisexual Youth group commence meetings this month.

Maree Porter of Newcastle has taken over the roll as National Women's Bi Youth Officer from Sabina. Myke Dobber in Hobart remains the other National Bi Youth Officer. Maree may be speaking at the upcoming Queer Collaborations - the National Queer Students' Conference in Brisbane June 30 to July 4. Any Bi students coming to Brisbane for this conference should contact ABN or Maree so we can plan events. Other Bi speakers could be Sabina, Ben and Wayne and there is a Bi Dinner planned for July 1st.

ABN will soon join up the ABYA as a member of the International Lesbian & Gay Youth Organisation (IGLYO), an international body for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender people under 28. The IGLYO Conference will be held in Pisa, Italy from July 27th to Aug. 3rd and ABN hopes to secure sponsorship or funding to send at least one Bi youth representative to this conference. If you are interested in helping to raise funds for this or you are able to attend at your own expense, contact ABN for more details and registration form. Only through us all working together on these matters can things be achieved. Sabina Nowak in Adelaide and Ben Wilson in Brisbane have indicated they would like to attend and represent ABN & ABYA. This would be the first time that a representative of an Australian youth group attended and I think the first time that an "out" Bi youth rep. Attended. ABN tried to send Sabina to the IGLYO Conference in Manchester in 1995 but the Australian Youth Foundation turned down her funding .

New Book Launched

The launch of "She's my wife, He's just sex" by Sue Joseph took place in Sydney on April 14th.. A book explores the issue of married men who have sex with men - interviews with the men, some women, researches and other experts. Wendy Bacon launched the book Upstairs at The Royal Hotel, Glenmore Road, Five Ways, Paddington. Munro Saunders, representing Wayne Roberts for ABN attended the launch. The book has a section titled, Australian Bisexual Network. Sue had contacted ABN last year for information and interviewed Wayne Roberts. Munro has kindly donated two copies of the book to ABN's resource library.

The book is published by the Australian Centre for Independent Journalism (ACIJ) which can be reached on (02) 9514 2488. An form to order this book is included with this issue of National Biways.

On April 21st, Sue Joseph was interviewed on JJJ Radio about her research, the men, their wives and the book. Wayne Roberts was in JJJ's Brisbane studio to also respond to the interviewer's questions and for an on-air listeners' talk back segment with Sue. Sue later appeared on Channel 9's Midday Show with a person from GAMMA NSW. An article also appeared in Sydney's, Sun Herald newspaper, on April 26th. ABN received over 36 calls on the 21st and people who heard the interview are still contacting ABN.

There is always fun to be had around the pool table at ABN parties and socialnights at Gillian's place.

Interested parties will be asked to participate in a semi-structured interview, which will be conducted over the phone or face to face (depending on participants distance from Newcastle). Participants anonymity will be assured, and copies of transcribed interviews, contact addresses and phone numbers of participants will be destroyed when the research is finished.

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

AN ANTHOLOGY OF WRITINGS BY BISEXUAL PEOPLE OF FAITH

I am seeking writing contributions by bisexual people of faith (Jews, Christians, Pagans, Quakers, UUs, Muslims, Hindus, Buddhists, Wiccans, people in 12-step recovery, as well as those following other spiritual paths) for an anthology. The working title of the anthology is A Wideness of Spirit: Testimonies of Bisexual People of Faith. My intended focus at this point is the presence of connections/intersections/links between your sexuality and your spirituality, but I'm open to broadening this focus, depending on submissions. Here are some topics I would love to see covered:

What exactly does your bisexuality have to do with your spirituality? How are they intertwined?

What has your history been like with regard to integrating your bisexuality and faith life? What childhood experiences did you have? >What has changed for you along the way? What role has your faith/spirituality played in your coming-out process? What role has bisexuality played in your spiritual awakening?

Have you had to struggle with scripture, doctrine and/or tradition as a bisexual person? What has been difficult for you? What has been healing for you?

What does it mean to you today to live as a bisexual Jew/Christian/Muslim/Pagan/etc.?

What pastoral support have you needed? How have you been ministered to as a bi person of faith?

Do you have a theology of bisexuality? A bi liberation theology? How does your bisexuality shape your images of the Divine? How do your images of the Divine shape your bisexuality?

What impact do your sexuality and your spirituality have on the sexual ethics you practice?

How does your bisexuality impact on your worship life? Is your bisexual identity welcome where you worship? Do you get to worship with other bisexual people? (If not, would you want to?) Do you have a bi-affirming faith community? What support has your congregation/denomination/lesbian-gay religious group given you? How out are you in your house of worship?

Are you out as a person of faith in lesbian/gay/bisexual settings?

How has the intersection of your faith and sexuality impacted your intimate relationships? (This can include discussion of marriage/holy union issues.)

How has AIDS impacted your sexual/faith life?

For clergy contributors, how has your bisexuality impacted your religious training and work?

In addition to seeking a broad range of religious/spiritual/theological locations and experiences, I hope the anthology will exhibit race/class/gender/age/geographic diversity, and that writers will reflect on the impact of these identities on the above questions. I'm also seeking contributors who handle their bisexuality in a variety of ways - including celibate people in religious orders, people in monogamous couples of any gender, married (or commitment ceremonies) folks, people in triads, people who identify as swingers, polyamorous people and just about anyone else who identifies as bisexual.

Essays, journal entries, prayers, songs and liturgy are welcome; there is no word count restriction at this stage (but the longer your submission, the more likely it is that it will be edited for length). Submissions can be published anonymously or pseudonymously, but I will need your name and other information for initial communication. All published contributors will receive one copy of the anthology.

The deadline for submissions is August 30, 1997 (this date is subject to extension, particularly upon request). Send submissions, ideas, questions to:

Amanda Udis-Kessler, PO Box 1814, Cambridge, MA 02238, USA.

If you can send both a hard copy and an IBM-compatible (Windows/Microsoft Word) disk, you will have my utmost appreciation. Please also feel free to call me at 617/273-9462 or 617/776-8540, or e-mail me at aukcrc@world.std.com with your thoughts and queries. I look forward to hearing from you.

Survey On Mixed-Orientation Couples

by Amity Pierce Buxton of the Spouse Support Network

Some of you may recall last year's survey on mixed-orientation couples sent out in preparation for the bisexuality conference in Berlin. This year, I've been asked to present the same topic for a panel on bisexuality at the American Psychological Association meeting in August. As before, it might be useful to have spouses in such marriages or relationships share what seems to have worked or not worked for them as a couple after the one spouse came out as bisexual, gay, or lesbian (per self-identity).

Included with this magazine is the same questionnaire (slightly refined). I invite each of you and, if possible, your spouse to complete. It's embarrassingly short but aims to provide information that will fill in a bit more of our sparse picture of mixed-orientation marriages, especially bi-hetero marriages and other mixed-orientation relationships. It focuses on coping strategies and external factors that help or hinder the maintenance of the marriage and/or a positive relationship. Out of the responses should come a generalized, anonymous portrait of how mixed-orientation couples, especially bisexual-heterosexual couples, handle a coming out. The findings will be shared.

Those of you who are responding for a second time will provide follow-up data for a longitudinal view of mixed-orientation couples. (Please indicate at the end of the questionnaire if you are a follow-up respondent). For those who are filling it out for the first time, your responses will add data to broaden our picture of mixed-orientation couples, especially bi-straight couples. Bi-gay couples are also encouraged to participate.

Please return the completed survey to me, Amity Pierce Buxton at:

8215 Terrace Drive, El Cerrito, CA, 94530-3058, USA

My Formal Introduction

by Kirsten McLean, ABN member from Melbourne.

Hi there! Allow me to formally introduce myself! I thought after all this time as an ABN member (nearly 3 years now) I should finally tell you who and what I am!!

I'm Kirsten, a nearly 25 year old bisexual woman, mostly monogamous, born and bred in Melbourne. I've been identifying as bisexual for about 3 years and am in a long term relationship with a bisexual man. I began identifying as bisexual in 1994 after my boyfriend at the time told me after we'd been together for 6 months that he was bisexual. I told him that I'd always fantasised about women, and I began to explore my bisexual side more with his support. I bought "Bi Any Other Name", and felt immediately empowered when I realized that I was bi too. I subscribed to ABN in August 1994. All of these things were my "coming out" and I felt like a new person as a result.

In 1995 I began a thesis as part of my Honours degree in Sociology. I decided that since there was so little being written at that stage by bisexual people, I would write on bisexually-identifying young people (18 - 26 y.o.). I managed to interview 25 people at length for this thesis. My Honours thesis was the first in my department to not only be written on bisexuality but on 'alternative sexual identities'!!!! My research provided some insight into the unique issues involved in being young and bi - including the feelings of alienation, frustration and loneliness. However, it was also a success in that it showed how strong young bi people are in their resolve to claim bi identities and rise above the shit they cop from some members of both the straight and queer communities. [Wayne, we can discuss the possibilities of the ABN getting a copy of this thesis in a later e-mail if you like]

As for my own activeness, well, apart from the thesis and attending both the Sexuality and Youth Forum and Queer Collaborations conferences in 1995 (where I met the lovely Myke Dobber - my academic pal!!!!) I have remained fairly silent. I am still closeted to my parents (although they know I've written on bisexuality and probably have guessed). I guess by not waving my fists too much I think I'm protecting them ,which is stupid I know.

All of my friends know, they actually knew before I did!! They are all cool with this and those who weren't so cool are no longer my pals. I guess in this way I have been extremely lucky.

Now as a Ph.D. student researching in the area of bisexuality/homosexuality/queer theory/popular culture/education (ie I haven't finalized my topic yet!!) I am ready to take on a more active role in the bi community. (I also now work part time and am more free to pursue other interests!!) I would like to become more involved in the ABN, as a contributor, writer or whatever. I don't know how much use I can be down here in Melbourne but I'd like to do what I can.

I'm also on "oz.bi". I've seen your postings about help with the 1998 BiCon. I didn't come to this years BiCon as I was in Adelaide at the time, but I will be there in 1998. Please let me know what helping with next years conf. will involve and I'll let you know if I can help. If I can lighten the load even slightly I'd be more than happy to assist.

Follow Up to Coming Out and Going In

from Teddy in Tasmania

Last year I submitted an article to National Biways. Wayne was good enough to print it in one of the editions. It was titled, "Coming Out and Going In". It dealt with my rather complicated personallife of Marriage, Polyamoury and Bisexuality and the issue of whether or not I would come out to my Family as being Bi.

Well, quite a lot has happenedsince then, quite a lot indeed, most of it, around 95% not good for me personally, or for my family. First things first, well my marriage has effectively ended. My husband left me for one of the partners in our triad. One of the reasons that came out was that he was not as accepting of my bi-ness as he first made out, and it seems that he harboured deep feelings that I would ultimately leave him for a woman.

At the time, he couldn't have been more wrong. My first loyalty was to him and the commitment we made to always come back to each other, no matter how many other lovers we had. He broke that commitment and my heart along the way. I am slowly pulling my life back together for my sake and that of my children. I've been helped in part by the Uni course I am doing through LDE at Monash. It has given me something to do to keep my mind occupied, otherwise I think I might have drowned in depression.

But back to the issue of being Bi, and the part it played in the events of the past 16 months. My husband once said to me that he thought that with a little push I could end up being a Lesbian. When he said that, I laughed at him because then that was the last thing on my mind. I was very much in love with him and though I did at the time have a girlfriend, the closeness I got from her was complimented by the closeness I got from him. The two went together and I couldn't have separated them and I wouldn't have given up one for the other.

But now I am on my own and I find I am thinking more about just what I do want in life and how I want to spend the rest of it and with whom. This question probably hasn't been helped by the fact that I have just met someone who interests me greatly. Someone that I think I would very much like to get to know a whole lot better. She is a lesbian, very much into monogamy. The question being could I give up a bit of me that is attracted to men. I don't know. I honestly don't know. I love men and I love women and I think I could love this person very much.

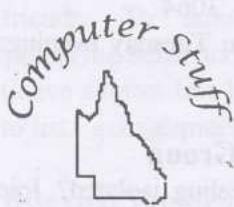

For some people there would be no question, that giving up a part of me for the sake of this (maybe) relationship, is just courting disaster, and that if I'm not true to myself then it's doomed to failure. It could very well be but then again, it could also be that I am giving up on a chance to be very happy. Something that has been in very short supply lately.

And then we come to once again to my family. I also have to take into account the effect it has on them, not just my children but the rest of my family because as it stands they still do not know about this side of my life. Coming out as bisexual, they could probably handle but the news that I was moving into a full time lesbian relationship would send immense shock waves through the family.

My relatives are not the most open minded people on the planet and I'm sure the news would offend at least some of them and that would impact on my children. There are no clear cut choices on this one. If there is anyone out there who has been through similar experiences, I would appreciate some words of wisdom. Please e-mail me at dwebber@netspace.net.au or write to me care of the ABN address.

I had hoped that 1997 would be a better year for me than 1996, but it doesn't seem that this is going to happen. My husband will most likely file for a divorce once the years separation is up in May. I'll have to come to terms with the fact that my marriage is beyond salvation and another dream will die.

Whether it will be replaced by another dream, I do not know. I don't know anything anymore.

SAFE PLACE PROJECT

As an initiative of the LGBT Anti-Violence Council and with the support of a grant from the Brisbane City Council, research and affirmative action to establish business houses as safe places, particularly Spring Hill to Fortitude Valley and the connecting corridor, is now being undertaken.

Your participation is invited to assist in reducing the incidents of homophobic violence/harassment and to improve the safety of LGBT community members.

A survey form will shortly be available at different venues for you to complete, enabling you to recount any experiences of homophobic harassment/violence that you may have experienced in Brisbane. (You may also telephone the GLWA phone lines on 3839 3277 or 3839 3288 and the information can be recorded. All information is non-identifying and confidential).

This is an opportunity to contribute in a positive way that will further empower the LGBT communities. Further information can be obtained by telephoning Michael on 017 805 799 or Diane on 017 805 465. ▼

SYDNEY BI YOUTH

About SBY:

Sydney Bi Youth is a Social/Support Group for bisexual youth and young adults 27 and under. Sydney Bi Youth was formed during a Youth Strand at the 2nd Australian Conference on Bisexuality held in Sydney recently at the Queen Mary Building, Newtown. From the initial 4 that attended this meeting the Group has grown to about 15, and with increasing interest from other young bisexuals we are now establishing regular bi-monthly meetings to be held at the Pride Centre Surry Hills. Sydney Bi Youth is part of the Australian Bisexual Youth Alliance, ABYA is a network linking young bisexual people throughout Australia where they can meet for discussion, support or social activities.

GAMMA PROJECT WORKSHOPS

As reported in the previous edition of our newsletter we have received a small grant to undertake five workshops on Bisexual Men and Their Female Partners. These workshops which are cost free to participants will be conducted in Ballarat, Castlemaine, Albury/ Wodonga and Melbourne.

The workshops will begin at 9 a.m. and finish at 5 p.m. and we anticipate that a maximum number of fifteen participants would provide an interactive session which would allow those attending to explore the issues of bisexuality in some detail. An outline of the program is presented opposite.

Lunch and refreshments will be provided and each participant will receive a copy of the Gamma Project Facilitator's Kit.

Places will be limited and bookings are essential so if you would like to attend one of these workshops please complete the application form and post or fax it to the centre as soon as possible. Further details of the program will be forwarded on receipt of your application. For further information contact Russell Oke on (03) 9890-1068.

Memory

She touched me.

Her hand on my shoulder,
for a heartbeat.

Our eyes seeing,
each other,
for the first time.

Again, again, again.....

Our first kiss,
hands stroking,
awakening feelings,
never known before.

Trembling, trembling, trembling.

Feelings expanding,
like the infinite Universe.
Living, longing,
dare I say loving.

Again, again, again.....

Her scent, her touch,
tossing her hair the way only she did.
The gesture remaining her's forever.

Memories, memories, memories.

Once, we return, to the dust
from which we came,
who will remember?

Again, again, again.....

Wolf Schmidt.

On Bisexual Men: A response to "Judy" BISEXU-L Discussion List Dec 3rd 1996 printed in Biways Nov/Dec 1996

by Maree Porter

According to "Judy",

"...not only are bi men more fun than straight men, they're less uptight about their male status, not as "piggish" (as in "male chauvinist pig") as straight men".

Judy, I think you need to get out a bit more. Just because bi men cop it up their arse, doesn't mean the sun will automatically shine out of it.

I've known some complete dickheads of all genders and sexualities. I've known some males who are perfect personified, men who make my toes curl just thinking about the time I spent with them. And I've encountered men who are total idiots, the trick is to be assertive and not suffer the fools.

If all women are taught how to be empowered, assertive and sexually carnivorous, "male chauvinist pigs" (of all sexualities) may become an extinct species. As no woman would be prepared to feed their hungry egos, and they'd suffer a slow demise wallowing in their own shit!

Believe it or Not

Locally, DCM (33 Oxford Street) means "Don't Come Monday," since the club's closed then. This bisexual heaven has an inspiring lighting and sound system and draws regulars who are virtual eye-candy.

Sue Joseph has been a journalist for 20 years, working both in Australia and Britain. Redirecting her career into journalism education, she is completing a Masters of Arts in Journalism at the University of Technology, Sydney, teaching as a part-time lecturer in journalism there. Throughout her own degree, she specialised in researching HIV and women and the media.

She lives with her two young daughters, by the water, just north of Sydney.

When retired NSW Supreme Court Judge David Yeldham gassed himself in the family car rather than confront the Police Royal Commission — and his family — his secret life of sexual liaisons with other men made major headlines. Sensational, major headlines. But the only factor making him different from thousands of other men, was his position.

"Undisclosed sexual duality amongst outwardly heterosexual men is far more common than public discourse has revealed to date. However, amongst the experts its existence has been common knowledge for many years.

"Sue Joseph was already researching this area when David Yeldham's story was made public. She found no shortage of men, practising this secret sexual duality, ready to talk about it. And women, after many years of marriage, discovering their partners' secret lives.

"David Yeldham's suicide put these issues on the public agenda. This book, I believe, explores the issues further, opening them up to a fuller, long overdue discussion."
